

Salem Krieger - Photographer

As one of the best photographers in New York City, Salem Krieger has worked for some of the most prestigious publications and companies in the country.

An outstanding client list includes:

Forbes Magazine, Newsweek Magazine, FujiFilm Corporation, Silverback TV Productions, American Airlines, Northwest Airlines, The US National Guard Association, Whole Foods Market, Columbia University, Getty Images, Merrill Lynch, Insight Venture Capital Partners, Frozfruit Fruit Bar Company, L'Oréal, Christopher Thomas Advertising, VNU Publishing, Finch Paper Company

Salem has also incorporated state of the art digital technology to capture media in some of the more creative usages such as 360 degree panoramic photographs when clients need to show interiors and other locations that are best viewed in full 360 degrees on the internet.

His photographs have been used for corporate portraits in annual reports to creating content for video promotion and publications. Salem has also produced video for marketing and promotional purposes.

Working in a cooperative team environment, Salem's creative input and technical skills have been able to help his clients achieve their media objectives from concept to finish product.